PRESS RELEASE

Aegir Consult Receives Esri's New Markets Award at Esri Partner Conference for Exceptional Achievement

Nairobi, Kenya - March 11, 2024 - Aegir Consult received the New Markets Award at the 2024 Esri Partner Conference (EPC) held on March 10–11, 2024, in Palm Springs, California. This award was presented to Aegir Consult for exciting wins through leveraging ArcGIS for new markets and new customers.

This award recognizes Aegir Consult's outstanding contribution leveraging Esri ArcGIS technology for solutions in new markets, particularly exemplified by their transformative work in Uganda's healthcare sector. Through our transformative solutions, we've proudly propelled our clients to embracing a digital-first approach to doing business while increasing their operational efficiency and solidifying our commitment to excellence and innovation.

Aegir Consult, a leading technology firm based in Nairobi, specializes in utilizing ArcGIS technology to drive innovation and positive change. Their award-winning solutions have significantly improved healthcare delivery in Uganda, streamlining logistics and enhancing patient care through spatial analysis and geospatial mapping.

Esri is the global leader in location intelligence with a network of over 2,900 partners around the world. The award winners are organizations that have demonstrated innovative and creative ways to solve complex problems by using Esri's ArcGIS software and those who have done exceptional work in advancing geographic information system (GIS) technology.

“Esri appreciates the strong partnership with Aegir Consult and acknowledges their dedication to customer success with ArcGIS by awarding them this 2024 EPC award,” said Thomas Fair, Director, Esri Partner Network.

Aegir Consult is committed to continued innovation and excellence in leveraging ArcGIS technology to address critical challenges and drive positive outcomes in new markets.
